

Gallatin-Madison Special Education Cooperative

Speech Language Pathologist for the '25-'26 School Year

Cooperative seeks a Speech Language Pathologist for the 2025-2026 school year.

The GMSEC: The office for the GMSEC is located in Belgrade, MT with a gorgeous view of the Bridger Mountains. Living in the Gallatin-Valley where there are abundant recreation opportunities just minutes away creates a work atmosphere where a work-play balance is encouraged! The city of Bozeman and surrounding area has something for everyone: hunting, fishing, skiing, snowshoeing, biking, theatre, MSU sports and on campus activities, big stores and boutique shopping and much, much, more. Get to know us through our GMSEC website <http://www.galmadspecialcoop.org/>

Benefits and Opportunities: The GMSEC provides a laptop, all testing, instruction materials, and a fleet vehicle for your use. We have a great health insurance offering in which the Co-op offers a significant contribution that typically covers the majority of the cost of a health plan. For family/spouse plans it covers a great deal of the cost and our flex plan allows for your cost to come out of your check pre-tax. We set aside funding to support continuous professional development for all staff. Speech Language Pathologists work closely with our special education teams in our schools and meet regularly to collaborate as a team. Annual National certification stipend of $2000 is also offered along with additional funding provided to support professional development and dues and fees.

Education and Experience:

Educational Preparation and Licensure:

Master's of Science degree in Speech and Language Pathology/Communication Disorders

Certificates, Licenses, Registrations:

Holds American Speech Hearing Association, ASHA, Certificate of Clinical Competence.

Meets requirements for licensure in the state of Montana. Maintains continuing education requirements for ASHA and state licensure with the Department of Labor. GMSEC has a competitive salary matrix that accepts years of experience. Annual salary is based on a 187-day contract is depending on experience.

For more information and to request an application, please contact the GMSEC Director, Lani Smith at (406)388-6508 or email lsmith@galmadspecialcoop.org

Thank you for your interest in employment with the Gallatin-Madison
Special Education Cooperative where we go "The Extra Mile" for kids.
Join this dynamic group of professionals! It will be the best decision you've ever made! I promise

For more information and to request an application, please contact the GMSEC Director, Lani Smith at (406)388-6508 or email lsmith@galmadspecialcoop.org